

RIDING, WINE AND WILD PATAGONIA

ARROYO PESCADO

ESQUEL, PATAGONIA

From the remote valleys of Arroyo Pescado to the vast Patagonia steppe, this 4-day experience blends horseback riding, boutique wine tastings, gastronomy, wildlife, and authentic estancia life in one of the most untouched regions of Argentina.

The Experience

Patagonia beyond fly fishing. Designed around wine, gastronomy, horseback riding, and the vast landscapes of Patagonia, this program explores a different side of Arroyo Pescado through boutique wineries, local producers, and immersive outdoor experiences.

Set within a private 13,000-hectare estancia near Esquel, guests discover open valleys, remote canyons, wildlife, and authentic Patagonia culture while enjoying curated wine tastings and regional cuisine deeply connected to the landscape.

A journey created for travelers seeking nature, comfort, gastronomy, and meaningful experiences in one of the most remote corners of Argentina.
